The earlier people get treatment for tuberculosis the sooner they will feel better. Early treatment also reduces the risk of long-term damage to the body.

Common TB symptoms are:
• a cough for three weeks • fever • tiredness
• night sweats • weight loss • no appetite

Any of these could mean TB.
Go to a doctor – TB is curable!

www.thetruthabouttb.org 01273 234770